WAGNER RECEIVES GRAPHIC DESIGN RECOGNITION AWARD

CHARLESTON--Kristin Wagner, daughter of Brian and Pat Wagner of Elgin, recently received the Graphic Design Recognition Award presented at Eastern Illinois University's All-Student Show.

The award is given to a sophomore or junior graphic design major whose creative work demonstrates the awareness of good design.

Wagner, a 1990 graduate of Larkin High School in Elgin, is a junior graphic design major.

The All-Student Show, co-sponsored by Eastern's Tarble Arts Center and the art department, featured works in a wide variety of media and styles that were judged by a three-member jury from outside the art department.

Eastern is a residential university with an enrollment of 10,700 on-campus students. The university has as its highest priority teaching in its classrooms and laboratories supplemented by strong academic support services.
